Army Intelligence and Security Doctrine

Survival skills are techniques that a person may use in order to sustain life in any type of natural environment or built environment. These techniques are meant to provide basic necessities for human life which include water, food, and shelter. The skills also support proper knowledge and interactions with animals and plants to promote the sustaining of life over a period of time.

Flashlight: As I mentioned, I carry a Fenix LD10 light. I carried a Surefire for many years and in many crazy places but it required a CR123 battery. I love the power of those but unless I carry them or I'm near an Army unit, I'm shit outta luck when the battery dies because they're not found very easily, and found myself without my primary light for a while in Northern Uganda.
